No State Fair Reduction.

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 10.—In railroad circles it is understood that the Western and Atlantic and the Atlanta and West Point railways, will not accede to the proposals made by the state fair association, requesting special rates during the state fair, Oct. 10th to 26th. The claim is advanced that special fair rates have been previously just what is now required as regular rates by legal enactment, and that further reduction would be inimical to the interests of the roads. It is believed that other roads will offer concessions and fair tickets at special rates will again be on sale. It is recalled, however, that all roads declined to put on any Labor day rates.

Proposals for Bonds.

New York, Sept. 10.—More than 100 sealed proposals for the $40,000,000 worth of city bonds to be sold on Tuesday have thus far been received at the comptroller's office. The indications, the city officials said, were that the sale of the 4 1/2 per cent bonds would be a success. Recently the city tried to dispose of bonds bearing 4 per cent interest, but failed because of the money stringency and the higher interest rates held out elsewhere for capital.

GREEN CREEK POST

Marriage of Miss Evelyn Palmer and Angelo Stellanos.
New York, Sept. 10.—Miss Evelyn Palmer, daughter of Mrs. John Palmer, of New York, was married Monday to Angelo Stellanos, a Greek, who has won recognition in this country for his poems and philosophical writings.

The marriage is causing interest not only because of the union of the young American girl and the Greek, but because of the social prominence of the bride's family and her unconventional ideas in the matter of dress.

Instead of an independent fortune, in her own right, Miss Palmer inherited much. On her last voyage she returned from Europe Aug. 10, aboard the Lusitania and was the only person in the crowded cabin whose attire was that of a Greek. At the time when Greece was the home of art and literature. It is a mass robe of Tyrian purple, with a necklace on her bare shoulders. Miss Palmer had to hear conversation pouring from her telephone. She told friends that she had adopted her unusual attire only because of its comfort. She said that it was the most comfortable that it was the most comfortable.
